I was not able to say goodbye to every one of you at the day of the foundation. Important discussions with other people were taking me up. I really am sorry. I do apologize.

For now I wish everyone a lot of success and many little pleasures in life. Every new start requires some practice – and we can exercise right away a bit of – patience.

We remain united in the Community of St Joseph and with his blessing to all of you I say goodbye and with kind regards, your

Lay Community of St Joseph

My Beloved in the Community of St Joseph

Today the monthly letter of the "Lay Community of St Joseph" appears for the first time.

It is a great joy for me to know that you are all very well protected under st Joseph's wing. Encouraging each other in the same spirit gives great power. Such a community can become a great stronghold. Nobody has ever asked anything of st Joseph in vain – his protection – his help.

In this matter the doctor of the Church Therese of Ávila (Teresa of JESUS) is a wonderful example. I rather let her speak:

„... I took for my patron and lord the glorious st Joseph, and recommended myself earnestly to him. I saw clearly that both out of this my present trouble, and out of others of greater importance, relating to my honour and the loss of my soul, this my father and lord delivered me, and rendered me greater services than I knew how to ask for. I cannot call to mind that I have ever asked him at any time for anything which he has not granted; and I am filled with amazement when I consider the great favours which GOD has given me through this blessed Saint; the dangers from which he has delivered me, both of body and of soul. To other Saints, our LORD seems to have given grace to succour men in some special necessity; but to this glorious Saint, I know by experience, to help us in all as a Holy Helper: and our LORD would have us understand that as He was Himself subject to him upon earth – for st Joseph having the title of father, and being His guardian, could command Him – so now in Heaven He performs all his petitions.

I have asked others to recommend themselves to st Joseph, and they too know this by experience; and there are many who are now of late devout to him, having had experience of this truth.

I used to keep his feast with all the solemnity I could, but with more vanity than spirituality, seeking rather too much splendour and effect, and yet with good intentions. I had this evil in me, that if our LORD gave me grace to do any good, that good became full of imperfections and of many faults; but as for doing wrong, the indulgence of curiosity and vanity, I was very skilful and active therein. Our LORD forgive me!

Would that I could persuade all men to be devout to this glorious Saint; for I know by long experience what blessings he can obtain for us from GOD. I have never known anyone who was really devout to him, and who honoured him by particular services, who did not visibly grow more and more in virtue; for he helps in a special way those souls who commend themselves to him.

It is now some years since I have always on his feast asked him for something, and I always have it. If the petition be in any way amiss, he directs it aright for my greater good.“
